

FLAG NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

On December 31, 2011 the Flag House had their New Year's Eve Party. The residents arrived at 7pm and began their evening eating pizza and snacks. Everyone brought their own beverages and enjoyed the company of others.

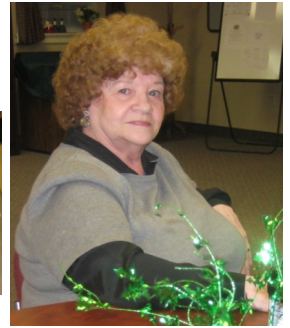

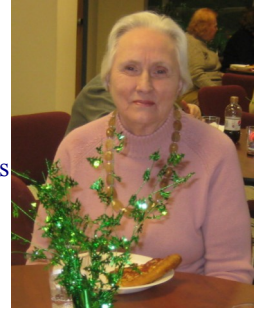

Martha Moses, Lorraine Filoreto, & Doris Walters

Throughout the night residents chatted about the year and enjoyed each others company. Some people played cards games, while others watched Dick Clark and Ryan Seacrest host the "Rockin Eve."

Sister Mary Johnson and Friend

The Flag House Residents enjoyed celebrating the New Year together.

Clara Matthews enjoying pizza

ROYERSFORD GIRL SCOUTS VISIT BARD

On Monday, December 12th, 2011 Royersford Girl Scout Troops 714 & 7819 came to visit Bard.

About 20 girls walked through the hallways singing and handing out ornaments to everyone. When the activities were done the girls made their way to the community room, and enjoyed refreshments.

HOLIDAY TOUR AT BARD BY: DORIS BAUMAN

On Wednesday, December 14, 2011 Bard opened their doors to approximately 100 people who are part of the Spring City Library House Tour. They were greeted by four tour guides, Dolly Favinger, Doris Gertenich, Peg Quinn, and Nancy Umstead. The main coordinator of the event was Doris Bauman.

The tour guides showed the guest three apartments. The apartments were apartment 444, Fran and Jake Maute's, apartment 201, Doris Bauman, and apartment 222 Doris Gertenich. After the guests walked through the decorated homes they were brought down to the Community Room.

Throughout the tour, the guests raved about the beautiful decorations at the Bard Complex.

L to R: Dolly Favinger, Peg Quinn, Nancy Umstead, & Doris Gertenich

MELODIES OF CHRISTMAS BY: SARAH GREIS

On December the 14, 2011 the Phoenixville Senior Center Singers gave a performance of “Songs of the Season,” at the Flag House Community Room. The conductor and pianist, George Meyers interjected antidotes and encouraged the participation of the audience with their 18 person choir. Feet were soon tapping as the residents sang along with familiar carols of the season.

Flag House residents remained after the performance, engaging in conversation over punch and cookies.

A special thanks to George’s Music Store for lending Phoenixville Homes a keyboard for the event.

Picture on the Left: Dolly Bierwirth, Emily Amodei, Betty Knapp, Doris Strunack and other Flag House residents enjoying the Phoenixville Senior Center Singers

NEW YEAR’S EVE PARTY AT BARD BY: SANDE GELET

On December 31st, 2011, the residents of the Bard Complex had their annual New Year’s Eve Party. The party began with entertainment and games. The residents played bingo and also had a baby photo contest. Winners won lottery tickets.

As the night went on Bard Residents enjoyed food and dancing as well as the company of others as they laughed the night away. They also watched “Rockin Eve” hosted by Dick Clark and Ryan Seacrest.

Residents started the New Year off with blowing of horns, hugs and kisses.

Bucky Buckwalters

Jake Mowrey

Nancy Umstead & friend

Jack Walters & Mary Lou Stepsie

Doris Bauman & Joe Proto

Sara Cooper & Anne Gelormo

Residents watching “Rockin Eve.”